

Abbie Jo Fischer

Fischer, Abbie Jo (nee Smith) Was born November 16, 1952. She died Saturday May 15, 2010. Abbie saw the world through rose-colored glasses and lived in a hopeful place. She was a joy to be around. After many years working in industry she found her true love in a return to the classroom as a teacher. She was an avid supporter of virtually all school activities. She also loved the arts in all its facets. She was predeceased by her father, David L. Smith, and is survived by her mother, Elaine Smith, her brother Douglas Smith, a loving extended family, many friends, and her beloved cats. She is being cremated and her ashes distributed per her wishes. There will be no memorial service.

Published in Dallas Morning News on May 19, 2010