

Marsha Lynn Shirley

Shirley, MARSHA LYNN affectionately known as "Marty," born March 17, 1951, passed away after a long illness on December 4, 2004. Marty enjoyed a unique quality of bounciness in her life. She was respected for her intellect and zest for life. She was born in Ft. Worth, Texas and attended W.T. White High School, University of Texas, Austin, as well as Chapman College Afloat, in California. She was voted High School favorite and always had a great outlook on life. Although she was ill for many years, she remained a happy and positive person. She grew up in Park Cities Baptist Church. She is preceded in death by her sister; Rebecca Shirley and her father; Dr. John L. Shirley. She is survived by her precious dog; "Mozart," mother; Wanda Hanes, sisters; Deborah Cooper and Joni Kuhn, niece; Crystal Cooper, nephews; Cash Cooper, Mitchell Kuhn, Chet Kuhn and best friend Dr. Robert Wolfe. Memorial Visitation will be held at Sparkman/Dickey Funeral Home, 17501 Dallas Parkway, Dallas, Texas, on Tuesday, December 7, 2004 from 6:00 - 8:00 PM.

Published in Dallas Morning News on December 6, 2004