

Paul Bradford

Bradford, Paul Randolph Born 2-18-51 in Dallas to the Pioneer Dallas family of Peggy and Addison M. Bradford, Jr. Attended Greenhill School, Schreiner Academy and W.T. White High School in Dallas. Proud of achieving his Eagle Scout and his time at Philmont. Always an adventurer, he traveled extensively throughout his adult life retiring to the Austin area to near his sister. Preceded in death by both of his parents and brother Tim Bradford. Survived by his sister Patty Bradford Adams and her daughter Genevieve Adams Wright also of Austin.

Published in Dallas Morning News on Jan. 15, 2012